

Vertigo

Except for

(maybe)

pink and

orange,

*my favorite
color combo*

has

got

to be

black

and white.

And I really like stripes.

Also

polka
dots.

So nice
and classic.

Especially together.

Doing stripes gives me the perfect excuse to splurge on super-long, high-drama tropical foliage.

My original sketch was in black and white. But to match my friend Lori's spectacular foyer, I soften the colors to be dark chocolate and vanilla (another classic).
